

6516206108.txt

Satellite Radio is a fantastic way to keep up with weather patterns and traffic. When traveling anywhere in the US and Canada this service is invaluable. The idea of prohibiting XM from broadcasting weather and traffic is absolutely wrong. The FCC should stand behind XM's right to broadcast this type of information which helps its listeners.